Do I need a deposit slip to make a deposit through Go! Mobile Deposit?

No. We will use what is called an electronic deposit slip to post the deposit to your account. You will only need to take a picture of the front and back of your check being deposited. You choose what account you want it deposited into.

Should I endorse my check before taking a picture?

Yes. Your signature must be on the back of the check with "Via Mobile Deposit" written underneath.

What do I do with the check after I deposit it through Go! Mobile Deposit?

Once a check has been credited to your account, you should retain the check for 14 days after the date of the image transmission. This provides sufficient time if there is an issue with the image quality or if the original item is required for any reason. After that 14 day period you should write "VOID" and then destroy it by cross-cut shredding or another commercially acceptable means of destruction to ensure they are not accidentally deposited again.

When will funds be made available to me from deposits made by Mobile Deposit?

Availability of Funds: In general, if an image of an item you transmit through Go! Mobile Deposit is received and accepted before 3:00 p.m. Central Standard Time on a business day, we consider that day to be the day of your deposit. Otherwise, we will consider that the deposit was made on the next business day. Provisional credit will be granted at approximately 10:15 a.m. and 3:15 p.m. CST on business days. Citizens Bank Minnesota's business day is every Monday through Friday, excluding Federal Holidays.

Are there any fees associated with using Go! Mobile Deposit?

There are no fees or charges assessed by Citizens Bank Minnesota for you to enroll in or use the Go! Mobile Deposit service. Connectivity, data usage and text messaging rates may apply. Contact your wireless provider for details.

If I discover I've entered an incorrect amount for a deposited check, should I try to re-deposit the check?

No. The system reads the dollar amount written on the front of the check and corrects the amount; sending an email notification back to you.

I selected the wrong account for deposit. What should I do?

You can perform a funds transfer between Citizens deposit accounts and the funds will be available immediately.

The check I deposited was returned. Can I rescan the check?

No, you cannot rescan the returned check. Your account will be assessed a returned item fee and you will receive a copy of the deposited item. It is best you get a new check to deposit to avoid any further delays.
